A year has gone by since Jesus took you into his arms, my precious sister. I can't even think about you without tearing up but one thing I know for sure, is that you are in heaven, waiting for all of us who love you and I'm looking forward to a big hug when I get there. My heart literally broke when I found out you left this earth but I celebrated knowing you graduated to heaven, where you are with mom and dad and your parents. I love you my sweet sister and I miss you so much!
